

GSSC Public Lecture SS 2017

VENUE: Morphomata, Weyertal 59, 50937 Köln

TIME: 17:45-19:15

19.04.	JEFF HAYNES London Metropolitan University	Faith-Based Organisations at the United Nations: 'Religious' Values and the Sustainable Development Goals
26.04.	TILL FÖRSTER University of Basel	Peace in West Africa's Conflict Zone
03.05.	MATTHIAS GARSCHAGEN United Nations University Bonn	Urbanization: Driver of Disaster Risk or Opportunity for Climate Resilience?
10.05.	OBERT B. MLAMBO University of Zimbabwe	Veterans, Masculinity and Expropriation: A Comparative Study of Triumviral Rome and Contemporary Zimbabwe
17.05.	JOHN MACKENZIE Lancaster University	Empires and their Environments: A Comparative Examination of the Relationship between Imperialism and Global Environments in Pre-Modern and Modern Times
24.05.	HODA SALAH University of Cologne	Secular and Islamic Women's Movements in the Middle East: Participation between Conservatism and Emancipation
31.05.	JOOST FONTEIN British Institute in Eastern Africa, Nairobi	Hippos, Fishing and Irrigation: Water as an Index of Power in Entangled Regimes of Meaning and Rule around Lake Mutirikwi, Southern Zimbabwe
21.06.	JANA KLEIBERT Leibniz Institute for Research on Society and Space, Erkner	Exclusive Development(s): Special Economic Zones and Enclave Urbanism in the Philippines
28.06.	ROLAND WENZLHUEMER Heidelberg University	Reconceptualizing Global History: On the Role of Global Connections in History
*03.07.	JAMES FERGUSON Stanford University	Presence and Social Obligation: An Essay on the Share *Venue: Neuer Senatssaal, Hauptgebäude, UoC
12.07.	DENA FREEMAN London School of Economics and Political Science	North-South Struggles over Financing for Development: State, Society and Market in the Global Age
19.07.	SOLOMON M. WALIAULA Maasai Mara University	The English Premier League and Football-Talk Performance in Eldoret, Kenya