

Index Voices

Issue 1/2018 Controlling Knowledge and the Role of Engaged Intellectuals
Authors	Title
Jonathan DeVore, Andrea Hollington, Tijo Salverda, Sinah Kloß, Nina Schneider, Oliver Tappe	Introduction
2 Anne Storch, Sophie Storch	Giving Them A Voice: A Soliloquy
3 Chen Tian	Journey to the Third Space
4 Sergio Pedro, Lúcia Fernandes	Toxic Autobiographies in Portugal: Memory, Resistance and Co-Production of Knowledge Within the Academia
5 Rosabelle Boswell	Heading South
6 Ana Paula Bastos	A Path with no Return: On how I Became a Sceptical Economist Regarding Development
7 Ciraj Rassool	Towards the Postcolonial Museum
8 Vito Laterza	The rise of xenophobic populism, knowledge inequalities, and the double binds of Europe-Africa academic relations
Ines Stolpe, Enkhbayaryn Jigmeddorj	Competing Narrations: Views on Mongolia's Colonialism Discourses
10 Carsten Junker	The 4D List: Knowledge Production of Difference, Diversity, Decolonization, and Destruction
11 Ingo H. Warnke	Intellectuality and the Public Invisibility of Linguistics
12 Doreh Taghavi	Knowledge Control & the 'Alternatives'
13 Andrea Hollington, Nina Schneider	Reflecting on New Forms of Knowledge Production and "Epistemic Violence" – a Dialogue
14 Penelope Allosbrook	A Curious Confusion in the Fynbos: Taking Shape and Sound