

Masterclass for doctoral candidates and advanced master students on E-Waste Value Chains, Sustainable Cities, and Livelihoods in Africa

University of Cologne, 10th to 11th October 2019

Tentative programme:

Thursday, 10th October

- 10:00-10:15 Introduction to the masterclass/workshop
- 10:15-11:00 E-Waste Initiative: planned Research Group on E-Waste (Javier Revilla Diez)
- 11:00-11:30 Planned individual e-waste projects (Boris Braun, Peter Dannenberg, Javier Revilla Diez)
- 11:30-12:00 Discussion of presentations on the E-Waste Initiative
- 12:00-13:00 Lunch break*
- 13:00-14:00 Induction presentation on the e-waste and recycling sectors in Accra/Ghana and related livelihood aspects - Professor Martin Oteng-Ababio (University of Ghana) and discussion
- 14:00-15:00 Induction presentation on recyclable waste including e-waste and its impact on livelihoods in South Africa - Professor Catherina Schenck (University of Western Cape) and discussion
- 15:00-15:30 Coffee break*
- 15:30-16:30 Induction presentation on tbd - Dr Somjita Laha (Institute for Human Development, Delhi) and discussion
- 16:30-18:15 First round of group work (World Café style)
- [18.45 Dinner for organizers and foreign guests]

Friday, 11th October

- 09:00-09:15 Introduction to today's programme
- 09:15-10:15 Second round of group work (World Café style)
- 10:15-11:15 Third round of group work (World Café style)
- 11:15-11:30 Coffee break*
- 11:30-12:00 Preparation of wrap-up session
- 12:00-13:30 Wrap-up session, final discussion
- 13:30 Lunch*

The masterclass will be organized by Boris Braun, Peter Dannenberg and Javier Revilla Diez (Institute of Geography) on behalf of the Graduate School of Geosciences (GSGS) and the Global South Study Center (GSSC), University of Cologne.